

REPAIR THE WORLD

JEWISH SERVICE SEARCH ENGINE

Repair the World is pleased to offer the nation's first-ever search engine for Jewish service and service learning. The culmination of a year's worth of research and development, pursued in partnership with Causecast, a leading social networking provider and platform supporting social change, Repair's search engine connects Jewish individuals with local, regional and international service opportunities, as well as immersive service learning programs, while assisting Jewish organizations in attracting volunteers and participants.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Profiles of participating organizations as well as individual service opportunities
- Online application and volunteer management framework
- Integration with national service databases including All for Good, VolunteerMatch and Serve.gov
- "Widgets" that seamlessly integrate with organizations' websites, providing embedded service listings
- Analytics that present participating organizations with a detailed dashboard of visitors, signups and search engine usage
- Individual user profiles with saved search criteria to identify new opportunities of interest
- Integration with Facebook and social networking platforms to share stories about participation
- Rating system to provide feedback on organizations and opportunities
- FREE OF CHARGE

The screenshot displays the Repair the World website's search engine interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links for SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES, BLOG, KNOWLEDGEBASE, D.I.Y., REPAIRLABS, ABOUT, and CONTACT. Below this is a search bar with a green background and a search button. The search results section shows a table with columns for OPPORTUNITY, DATES, ORGANIZATION, LOCATION, RATINGS, and ACTIONS. The first result is 'Volunteer Day and Greenhouse Build' on Jun 8, 2010, organized by Repair the World in New York, NY, US. Below the table, there are three featured opportunities: 'Friday Night HEAT' (Jun 18, 2010), 'Pantry Day - Packaging, Distribution & Outreach' (Jun 21, 2010), and 'Urban Free Produce Distribution!' (Jun 22, 2010). The footer contains a search bar, a 'Search...' button, and a copyright notice: © 2010 Repair The World. All rights reserved.
